Designed in 1936 by Martin Wilke for Schriftgießerie D. Stempel, Frankfurt, a.M.
the face has remained obscure to the extent that it has heretofore been undigitized until today.

Upon arrival of generous hot metal fonts from Schriften-Service D. Stempel, in Darmstadt Germany proofs were pulled, from which scans were made.
This is a crude rendering to allow for layout of forms to be subsequently set from the cases.

This specimen booklet issued in an edition of 100.
